History Assessments of Thinking (HATs)

Note: Within each time period the HATs are listed in chronological order. HATs with content from two of the designated periods are listed in each. Each HAT is hyperlinked to its webpage.

12th—14th Centuries
Seville Quran

15th—17th Centuries
Creating Columbus Day
Inca Fortification
Plague Doctor
The Virginia Company
Signing of the Mayflower Compact
The First Thanksgiving

18th Century
Portrait of an Iroquois Leader
Seven Years’ War
Washington Crosses the Delaware
Declaration of Independence
Túpac Amaru II
Louis XVI
Tennis Court Oath

1800-1864
The War of 1812
Napoleon’s Retreat
Clay’s American System
Traders in the West
Immigration
African American Workers
John Brown
John Brown’s Legacy
A Perspective on Slavery
Slave Quarters
Antebellum South
Attack on Fort Sumter
Pickett’s Charge
Morale After Fredericksburg
Gardner’s Civil War Photography

1865-1897
Post-Civil War South
Reconstruction Riots
The KKK in the 1870s
President Grant and Horace Greeley
Women’s Rights
1877 Railroad Strike
Labor History
Haymarket Aftermath
Anarchism and the Haymarket Affair
Riis’s Urban Photography
Creating Columbus Day
The Conservation Movement
Zulu Chief

1898-1929
American Imperialism
Explosion of the USS Maine
Opposition to the Philippine-American War
Connections to the Philippine-American War
Anarchism and the Haymarket Affair
Lynching Controversy
Rockefeller
Standard Oil Company
Photographs of Working Children
The Case of the Clock
Italian Atrocities
The Role of Women
Immigration
World War I Advertising
Debate Over the League of Nations
Edison and the Kansas Housewife

1930-1945
Breadlines in the 1930s
Labor Movement in the 1930s
Unions in Paterson, New Jersey
Labor History
John Brown’s Legacy
Migrant Mother
Lange’s Iconic Photograph
Civil Rights Movement in Context
Appeasement at Munich
Japanese Internment
Evacuating Japanese Americans
Cold War Foreign Policy

1946-2000
Cold War Foreign Policy
Civil Rights Movement in Context
Women’s Rights
China’s Cultural Revolution
Apartheid in South Africa
The Conservation Movement